ANNUAL MOTHERS' AND CHILDREN'S W. C. T. U. PICNIC

One of the most enjoyable mothers' and children's W. C. T. U. picnic was held at Green Elm, the home of Mrs. Eva Jackson in Milletville. This is an annual event and is the last meeting for the summer.

A more beautiful day could not have been desired and in spite of the heat, all were made comfortable by the even cooling breeze. A beautiful dinner of baked beans, baked peas, scalloped, salmon, sandwiches, all kinds of pastry, coffee, iced tea and lemonade, was served to seventy-six. Later on all enjoyed ice cream.

A short business meeting was held. The secretary reported four members lost by death, eleven new members and four honorary members gained. By request Rev. Lyon gave a very pleasing solo. A visiting vote of thanks was extended to Mrs. Jackson, who responded in thanking the gathering for coming in such numbers to make such an enjoyable day.

In the afternoon stunts were enjoyed by the children. Master Hugh Pendexter, 3rd, aged six, delighted his audience by stories and song.

One of the greatest attractions for the children proved to be the old barn, where they could play to their hearts content.

The youngest guest was Baby Robert Williams, who played and cooed the whole day through and wondered what it was all about. The day passed so quickly night came before it was realized. All left extending many thanks to Mrs. Jackson for her gracious hospitality.

There was a good attendance at the meeting, last Saturday night, and after the business was transacted, the doors were opened to the children. The program was entertaining to all and was as follows:
